FIRST NATIONS STUDENT SUPPORT POLICY

At Taylorweir we are committed to providing a culturally safe, inclusive and respectful learning environment for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students.

We recognise and respect the unique cultures, histories, languages, knowledge and continuing connection to Country of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples. We are committed to promoting equal access to vocational education and training and supporting all students to achieve their learning and career goals.

We aim to support First Nations students by:

- Providing a welcoming, inclusive and culturally respectful learning environment.
- Promoting equal opportunity and access to training and assessment.
- Offering appropriate learning support, guidance and referrals to relevant support services.
- Respecting individual cultural identities, family and community connections, and cultural obligations.
- Maintaining student privacy and confidentiality.
- Providing a safe environment free from racism, discrimination, bullying and harassment.
- Encouraging student feedback and continually improving our training and support services.
- We recognise that every student has individual needs and aspirations. Our approach is to listen, respect each student's choices and work collaboratively to identify appropriate support where needed.

Taylorweir is committed to welcoming, respecting and supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander students throughout their training journey.
